EDUCATION

Ph.D., Political Science, University of Iowa, 2023

- Dissertation: "The Role of Internal Actors' Interests in UN Arms Embargo and the US Arms Sales Policies"
- Abstract: My dissertation seeks to understand why only some countries with human rights violations become the targets of arms transfer restrictions. I suggest that the underlying political interests of actors within the UN Security Council and US Congress affect the arms transfer controls by UN arms embargoes and congressional joint resolutions.
